Seattle SCEA membership can take you to places you've never been

Welcome to Seattle! As employees in other divisions of Safeway, you are eligible for membership in the Seattle Chapter of Safeway Companies Employee Association (Seattle SCEA). SCEA is an organization of employees, for employees, and run by employees.

SCEA is one of the largest employee associations in the world

SCEA is made up of all Safeway employees from across the United States. These employees come from all Safeway Divisions. Not only will our employees have the benefit of enjoying our own numerous discount programs and recreational activities, but they will be able to take advantage of corporate SCEA discount programs from across the United States!

Three goals of SCEA

1. Provide year round recreational events for members and their families.
2. Provide significant discounts to entertainment, services and retailers nationwide.
3. Provide financial assistance to employees in need through SCEA's Friends Helping Friends program.

Let the Good Times Roll

As a member of Seattle SCEA, you will have the opportunity to attend fun events and parties all year long! Seattle SCEA staff and volunteers work hard to coordinate fun parties, events and activities for you and your family! Some examples of events include: sport tournaments, bowling parties, holiday parties, casino nights, dinner dances and more.

Unbeatable Discounts

All SCEA members are entitled to unbeatable discounts to major theme parks in Seattle and across the United States, restaurants & retail, movie theaters, concerts, insurance, and so much more.

Get Involved Today

Membership in Seattle SCEA costs less than one cup of coffee a week. Enjoy this tremendous benefit for only 50¢ per week. Membership will be deducted directly from your paycheck each week. If you attend just one event or buy only 2 discounted tickets to Seattle Aquarium each year, you have more than recouped the cost of membership. Talk to your manager or SCEA coordinator today for an application.

Friends Helping Friends, the SCEA Financial Assistance Fund

Seattle SCEA will provide a source of assistance for employees who face financial hardship as a result of an unexpected crisis. It is up to Seattle SCEA members to apply for this donation and you must be a member of SCEA for at least ninety days to apply. The SCEA corporate Board of Directors has established the criteria to receive a donation. Information and application forms are available from your manager, your SCEA Coordinator, or on www.onlinescea.com. All requests for assistance are confidential. Additional information about Friends Helping Friends is available in a separate brochure.
